Two Hearts Broken

Key: F

1 5
In the heat of a moment words were spoken
3 4 1
Words he wished he never would have said
5
In the blink of an eye two hearts were broken
4 3 1
Now sorry thoughts are raging through his head

Chorus:

4 3 1
Hear the beat, of two hearts sadly breakin'
4 3 5
Feel the heat, of knowing what you done
1
Beat by beat, two broken hearts are achin'
3 4 1
In the silence that has only just begun

Verse 2:

Now he sits alone still not quite believin'
The words he said a few short hours ago
Though the words are gone his heart's already grievin'
For hurting the one that he loves so

Verse 3:

By the light of the morning day is breakin'
The teardrops from the night before are gone
But two hearts have only just begun the achin'
That follows after angry words have flown
