What She Had To Do

1 1 (3 bass) 1 (4 bass)
Years ago when life was new

6m 5
Did the things she had to do

4 5 6m
Toed the line, worked all day

4 5
Trying hard to make her way

1 1 (3 bass) 1 (4 bass)
Not much time for herself

6m 5
Put her dreams up on a shelf

4 5 6m 4
Lost her way -- her spirit too

1 5 1
As she did what she had to do

Years rolled by, nothing changed; nothing new or re-arranged
Seems she fell into a trance; never gave her dreams a chance

Then one day a voice inside, Said, “It’s time now to decide
Live a life that isn’t you -- Or do what you got to do”

Chorus:
5
Some dreams mean more than gold
1 4
But to make a dream come true
1 5 1
Take a chance, and do what you got to do

Years have passed since that day; that she chose a different way
Left her old ways behind; in her search for peace of mind

Made some time for herself; pulled her dreams back off the shelf
Took the chance, started life anew; finally did what she had to do

© 2004, Rick Jamison